Fort Wayne Woman's Club

Organized March 7, 1925

CLUB HOUSE

402 West Wayne Street

Telephone 742-7195

Mrs. Ben Tenny - - - - - Executive Secretary

The President's Message

Dear Members:

It is my pleasure to greet you at the beginning of another club year.

We all have a contribution to make to the success of our club. Let us resolve to become active and informed members, ready to take part in department functions and attend the Thursday morning lectures. Our founders prepared a solid foundation and this outstanding club is our heritage. Imagination and fortitude will determine where we go from here.

The Junior Department has completed its third year. I am pleased the members are becoming more involved in club activities. To be a good example is the most valuable gift we can give to them.

I look forward to meeting with you again each Thursday. Remember, a successful club is the one whose members do more than is necessary, and keep on doing it.

Sincerely,

MILDRED BRADTMILLER

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(Right hand over heart, standing at attention)

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

•

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART.

Who's Who On Our Program

(Listed Alphabetically)

KAY BRITTEN

Miss Britten is English and studied at the Royal College of Music in London. She is a singer-guitarist, writer, composer and actress of wide experience, and has a clever way with a song and an epithet.

Her programs are built around dramatic themes and her witty and erudite comments are an integral part of the whole.

LOUISE BUSHNELL

A native New Yorker, Mrs. Bushnell was educated in New York City and has a degree from the University of Lausanne, Switzerland.

As liaison for National Association of Manufacturers and its interests in public and world affairs, she speaks informatively and strongly about "Pride In Country." She instills within her listeners a sense of purpose and faith for now and the future.

VIVIENNE COLLE

An attractive, versatile lady of great talent and a well known custom designer for some of the most famous and elegant women in America, she teaches everyone to express complete individuality, creating fashions to wear, gifts, home furnishings, etc.

Her talk on "Make-It-Yourself-Boutique" brings out the fashion designer in everyone. This is a lecture-demonstration and Miss Colle will show some of her creations.

BARNABY CONRAD

After graduating from Yale he has had many careers and a life packed with danger and adventure. He has written fifteen books, experienced bullfighting in Spain, painted portraits of Bing Crosby, Deborah Kerr, Princess of Greece.

He has been a diplomat, a filmmaker, and he is an accomplished pianist. He likes to laugh and enjoys sharing his life with his audience.

ROBERT CROMIE

As Book Editor of The Chicago Tribune, he has been for many years one of the most thoughtful critics in the world of books. His talks reflect his wide-ranging taste, his fascinating inside knowledge of the world of books, and a kind of balanced perspective that is rare nowadays.

He tells "inside" stories of authors and books that make up a colorful commentary on the world of contemporary writing.

ROBERT DAVIS

Robert Davis, of international fame, is an extraordinary film producer and lecturer. His well executed color documentary films are testimony to why his lecture bookings take him over 40,000 miles of the United States and Canada each year.

The key to the spirit of Belgium is its people. Here is an opportunity to know a great deal more about "Unique-Petite-Belgium" through the eyes, ears, and expertise of a great cinematographer.

MARSHALL DODGE

"Down East With Marshall Dodge" reveals a thorough grasp of the character of Maine humor and he delivers it with great effectiveness.

A native of New York and a graduate of Yale with an MA in philosophy, he met Robert Bryan, himself an acclaimed Maine story-teller. Together they put out a record album entitled BERT AND I.

Mr. Dodge has made an impressive debut as an entertainer and successfully adapts his special brand of humor to a variety of audiences.

NANCY GOULD

California born, a top flight model and television personality, Nancy's fondness of food found herself too plump to pose. She resolved to do something about it and is now President of Nancy Gould Products, inventor of the "Mini Mousse" and innovator of "The Cruise to Lose." The key to her success—interest. Interest in life, in people, in not just thinking about things but doing them.

Delightful and witty Nancy attempts to help others find their way to their own brand of success.

ROSALIND GRAFF

Possessed with a scintillating and dynamic personality, Rosalind Graff again returns to our stage to present and dramatize a popular Broadway play.

Performing in hand-knit gowns—her "trade mark"—she portrays each character with vivid distinction.

She has a complete dramatic background and her performance is that of a true professional.

CLEVELAND GRANT

Cleve Grant again returns to show us another film of exceptional beauty, quality, color and interest. He is a top-flight film professional-lecturer, and he has traveled extensively in order to bring to his audiences films that contain much adventure and travel interest.

He was one of the principal contributors of shot-in-the-wild footage to Walt Disney's True Life Adventure series. His films are thought-provoking and informative as well as entertaining.

LOIS HOBART

"There's nothing boring about a good book" says Lois Hobart who reviews books in a different and delightful manner, being well trained in the art of making characters come alive.

She has a BA in Drama and Psychology and she shares the excitement of a good book and its characters with her audiences.

PHYLLIS KEPLER

"A Feminine Potpourri" is a talk on fun, fashion and home-making around the world. Miss Kepler, explorer-journalist, tells of life in her London flat and Madrid penthouse as well as her visits among the veiled women of the Middle East.

She will share with us her hilarious moments attending a Tokyo geisha party, a visit to a Japanese wedding ceremony hall, and a Hong Kong country club.

These are just a few of her experiences with women in other lands.

•

J. FRANK LANSING

Mr. Lansing is a native of Illinois. He graduated from the University of Illinois with an AB in Philosophy, from Colgate-Rochester Divinity School with a BD, and granted Doctor of Divinity by Franklin College in 1953.

He has had a vast background in ministerial duties and community activities, and is currently Executive Director of The Associated Churches of Fort Wayne and Allen County.

It is kind of him to take time from his busy schedule to give us an inspirational talk.

•

REV. DANIEL R. LEEUW

Rev. Leeuw is a member of several professional organizations; a former Vice President of Huntington County Mental Health Association, and a former high school principal. Besides his many affiliations and duties, he teaches several subjects including Sociology, Juvenile Delinquency, and Criminology.

His lecture is timely, it is ever-current, and it should be of great interest and concern to everyone.

•

KENNETH M. LINK

"Attic Dotes" is not a misnomer in the sense in which Mr. Link speaks; nor is his being from Missouri an idle cliché. He has an AB and MS in Psychology, Sociology, and Counselling Psychology.

He has spent many years in the area of public speaking, and his diversified background enables him to be most comprehensive in his humorous approach to developing and motivating individuals.

His lecture supplies good fun along with good therapy through the philosophy of Psycho-Cybernetics.

FLORENCE MURRAY

Florence Murray has been a teacher of dramatic art and has molded many of her charges into oratorical winners.

Behind footlights since the age of three, public speaking comes easily and she is known as a "Speaker with a Sparkle." Poetry, anecdotes, and special material are featured, with the performer's vitality and enthusiasm for sharing her love of life with others acting as the catalyst for audience enjoyment.

Her spirit is puncture-proof and her showmanship fool-proof as she distributes happiness.

PRINCESS RUDIVORAVAN

Her Serene Highness, Princess of Siam and Granddaughter of King Mongkut of "Anna" fame, spent her childhood in the City of Forbidden Women in the Grand Palace of Bangkok. The call of freedom was so strong, she gave up the glittering jewels and clothes, the luxuries of the perfumed prisoner of the Court of Siam, to live in America.

Her's is a fascinating story, unique in modern times, and she is now a charming blend of Eastern graces and Western freedoms.

•

MAX SIEGEL

A fluent speaker, Mr. Siegel brings to his audiences several anecdotes gleaned from many years of contact with writers and as a bookseller, editor, and literary agent. He began his career in the book world and for many years operated his own bookstore. In 1960 he began his career as a literary agent.

He presents his talk with humor and many human interest stories.

•

WILLIAM H. STRINGER

Columnist and Editorialist Washington Bureau of the Christian Science Monitor, Mr. Stringer delves into the heart of the malaise in America today; its moral decline, its new life-styles, and the breakdown in family and religious values. Is there valid hope, or is civilization in serious decline?

His splendid talk will contribute knowledge and enjoyment to his listeners.

•

HELEN VAN WYK

Miss Van Wyk's talents are many, not only as a painter, but as an outstanding interpreter of the art of painting.

She studied painting—and sculpture—in New York and in Europe. Her personality is as vibrant as the colors on her palette, and she delights her audiences with her ability and charm as she demonstrates her painting talent.

ANNUAL REPORT OF BOOK AND TRAVEL DEPARTMENT 1970-1971

The Book and Travel Department participated in all general club projects.

The Department opened its club year with a smorgasbord luncheon and program on November 17.

Our Department was responsible for the music for the club's two Christmas luncheons.

The scheduled speaker for our sponsored day was unable to appear. In substitution for Debbie Sherwood, Joyce Worsley, distinguished British-born actress, presented a one-woman show, "A Mirror for Women".

All other programs were carried out as scheduled.

The recipient of our Department's philanthropic contribution of $25.00 was Project HEAR, the deaf education program for young deaf children sponsored jointly by the Fort Wayne Community Schools and the Fort Wayne Junior League.

During the year we welcomed thirteen new members into the Department.

ANNUAL REPORT OF CIVIC DEPARTMENT

1970-1971

The Civic Department began the club year with our Sponsored Day in October.

We served as general chairman of the two Christmas luncheons on December 3rd and 4th.

The programs of the department were well attended and because of this we want to express sincere appreciation to our guest speakers, namely, Mrs. Koeneman of the Maplewood House of Flowers for presenting "Creative Flower Arranging and Corsage Making", and Mrs. N. L. Salon's most enjoyable "Things Could Be Verse".

Our Philanthropic contributions were in the sums of $10.00 to the Fort Wayne State Hospital and Training Center; $10.00 to the American Cancer Society; and $25.00 to the Indiana Association for Perceptually Handicapped Children.

Four new members were welcomed into the department.

A special note of thanks to all who have helped to make our department functions such enjoyable and successful ones.

ANNUAL REPORT OF FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT 1970-1971

The Eighteenth Annual Tea and Exhibit by the Indiana Artists on Sunday, October 18th, opened our year's programs. Fine exhibits were held throughout the year, including the excellent one by our own Woman's Club members.

Our department was in charge of the decorations for the two Christmas luncheons.

All department programs were carried out as scheduled. As is our custom, we gave $25.00 to the High School Art Shop Fund, $5.00 dues to the Indiana Federation of Arts Club and answered the questionnaires from them.

During this year, we have recorded one death, three resignations, one member delinquent, two members transferred to other departments, one member absentee, and four new members.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JUNIOR DEPARTMENT 1970-1971

The Junior Department opened their series of programs in November with a presentation of Holiday Ideas. Following through the club year, the group enjoyed a wig demonstration in January. A showing of fashion trends for the coming season was featured on the program for February. Our second Sponsored Day was March 25, 1971, with luncheon and bridge following the lecture by Nan Birmingham. We closed our club year in April with a husband and wife dinner featuring the New Haven High School Swing Choir as entertainment.

The Department again designated their $25.00 philanthropy money for the Fort Wingate Elementary School in New Mexico.

During the year nine new members were welcomed into the department.

Reports of Chairman & Officers

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY 1970-1971

The Fort Wayne Woman's Club has completed its 46th year as a cultural inspiration to the city. Mrs. Robert Bradtmiller has most efficiently served as president and has endeared herself to all members by presiding capably and graciously.

The departments were active throughout the year with Sponsored Days, Department Luncheons, Special Projects, Evening Dinners, and always with every detail perfected and lovely decorations provided.

The Junior Department has completed its third successful year of existence as our seventh department. Programs for their evening meetings included a demonstration of holiday ideas, wig show, fashion show, and a husband and wife dinner. Two general club programs have now been sponsored by the Junior Department and the Easter Bridge was chaired by a Junior.

Thursday programs have covered all interests of our various departments. Mrs. Frank M. Watson and her Program Committee showed the fruits of their efforts in bringing outstanding artists, lecturers, photographers, fashion experts, airline authorities, writers and theologians. These guests have been most complimentary of our lovely Club Rooms and of our hospitality to them.

Following the regular programs were the delightful well appointed Thursday luncheons. Opportunity was provided members to read the name tags and become better acquainted with other members and guests, as well as the extra treat of hearing additional information from the speaker of the day. This, in some instances, proved more informative than the original program. Bridge was enjoyed following many of the Thursday luncheons and department meetings. With the relaxation of the guest limit, many friends of members, both local and out-of-town, joined with us for more of the Thursday morning programs and luncheons.

Members of the painting classes have displayed outstanding works in the auditorium which have brought forth praise and admiration while adding to the attractiveness of our club.

The Board of Directors Meetings have been exceptionally well attended. Business has been transacted during the one to one and a half hour long sessions with frankness, sincerity, co-operation, and often a bit of humor.

Changes in By-Laws made during the club year will be noted in the yearbook. It is recommended that all club members read and become familiar with the Annual Reports, Constitution, By-Laws, Standing Rules and House Rules found in the yearbook. Be a well-informed member and enjoy the privileges and advantages of this, your own, Fort Wayne Woman's Club.

Recording Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT BOARD OF TRUSTEES, 1970-1971

The Trustees met in two regular meetings as prescribed in the By-Laws, and in one called meeting.

Under the continued direction of Mrs. Wilson Criswell the Memorial Book is being kept up to date. The yearly rent of One Dollar has been paid to the Chamber of Commerce. The bill for the meat slicer bought in May, 1970, has been paid. All fire extinguishers have been inspected.

The steps from the auditorium to the Williamsburg Room have been completely carpeted to provide safety and ease of maintenance. The area carpeted includes the entrance, steps and risers, and platform.

An interference on the P. A. System has been checked, and hopefully corrected. The elevator maintenance contract has been continued with the Houghton Company.

Retiring Board members are Mrs. Wilson Criswell, Mrs. John Margraf, and Mrs. Clyde Reed. New members elected to the Board of Trustees by the Board of Directors are Mrs. A. J. Baxter, Mrs. Alton Bloom, and Mrs. Robert McDougall.

New officers of Trustees elected by its Board are Mrs. John Rahrer, Chairman, and Mrs. Forrest Fitch, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
Dorothy M. Reed
